SEAD: Helping Children Cope During COVID-19

Patience, Tolerance, Routines and Reassurance: Empowered Responses for Uncertain Times

Children may respond differently to an outbreak depending on their age. As parents and role models, it is important to remain calm and reassuring, stay informed of the facts, and take cues from your children to respond to their individual needs. Empower children about what they can do to remain healthy – good handwashing, covering sneezes & coughs, and helping with household cleaning and sanitizing.

	Reactions	How to Help
 Preschool	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Fear of being alone, nightmares</li> <li>• Speech difficulties</li> <li>• Loss of bladder/bowel control, constipation, bed-wetting</li> <li>• Change in appetite</li> <li>• Increased temper tantrums, whining, or clinging behaviors</li> <li>• Sleep pattern changes</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Patience and tolerance</li> <li>• Provide reassurance (verbal and physical)</li> <li>• Encourage expression through play, reenactment, storytelling</li> <li>• Allow short-term changes in sleep arrangements</li> <li>• Plan calming, comforting activities before bedtime</li> <li>• Maintain regular family routines</li> <li>• Avoid media exposure</li> </ul>
 School Age (Ages 6-12)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Irritability, whining, aggressive behavior</li> <li>• Clinging, nightmares</li> <li>• Sleep/appetite disturbance</li> <li>• Physical symptoms (headaches, stomach aches, etc.)</li> <li>• Withdrawal from peers, loss of interest</li> <li>• Competition for parents' attention</li> <li>• Forgetfulness</li> <li>• Increased statements of worry or fear</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Patience, tolerance, and reassurance</li> <li>• Play sessions and staying in touch with friends.</li> <li>• Regular exercise and stretching</li> <li>• Engage in educational activities</li> <li>• Participate in structured household chores</li> <li>• Set gentle but firm limits</li> <li>• Follow the child's lead and need for information when discussing current outbreak. Encourage child to ask questions. # Se lanza programa de comidas en paradas de autobús con 53 ubicaciones

A partir del lunes, 23 de marzo, los Departamentos de Servicios de Nutrición Infantil y de Transporte de SAISD están colaborando para entregar comidas de desayuno y almuerzo en 53 paradas de autobús a diferentes horas.

El programa, llamado Comidas SAISD, estará disponible a lo largo del cierre escolar del distrito. Los estudiantes no tienen que estar inscritos en SAISD para participar, pero deben tener 18 años o menos. Los niños que reciben comidas deben estar presentes a la hora de recoger.

Las comidas, que ahora incluyen opciones de platillos calientes, están disponibles en las siguientes paradas a las horas indicadas.
