

Donor Privacy Policy
(Easy, Customer-Service Language Version)

Your privacy matters to us.

Texans Can Academies values your support and your trust. When you provide your personal information, we will hold it only for the purposes of relating to you, organization to donor.

At no time will you receive any communication from us on behalf of a third party, and no third party will receive your information except as needed for the purposes of processing your generous donation.

Your business with us stays with us.

Thank you for your support of the students of Texans Can Academies, and thank you for your trust.
